

FALL IS BLOWING OPEN NEW DOORS | MAKING STYLE HAPPEN: 4 SOCIAL HARBINGERS

Papercity

HOUSTON SEPTEMBER 2005

STYLE | FASHION | SOCIAL

DASHING THROUGH FALL ... Go

One sublime season,
coming right up.

Fashion's Icy Hitchcock Heroine

Are you on the wait-list for these fall accessories?

SPECIAL SECTION Social Black Book

Everywhere you need to be this season

Taking the Plunge:
Top-tier collectors share
their first art piece

Gotta Have It: Houston's plugged-in tell you what to see and have ... this fall.

John Mariani outs the country's best bistros

ALSO

Feature House: Laura Henson's Ivory Tower

Still Need a Reason to Shop...

Be-jewel, a clothing, jewelry, accessories and art boutique at 2421 S. Shepherd recently opened. It's owned by Terry Webre (sister of Houston restaurateur Tracy Vaught) and her husband, Rafael Espinal ... Vicki Rizzo has moved her designer resale shop, More Than You Can Imagine, from her former location near Buffalo Grille to the old Manos y Mas space on Westhimer. She's taking fall and winter consignments now and has in stock Gaultier, Chanel, St. John, Lela Rose, Prada, YSL and Gucci, plus shoes and handbags from Manolo Blahnik, Prada, Fendi, Chanel and more. And her jeans bar is great — Seven Jeans, Citizens of Humanity, Blue Cult, David Kahn, Earl, FRX, Lucky Brand Jeans and Sacred Blue. You'll also find gifts such as candles and frames. Laurann Claridge and Kate Allen